SURF

SURF SERIES

Sports Authority

Cobalt's Surf Class comprises of four models, including the CS23 Surf and three R Series models, the R4 Surf, R6 Surf and R8 Surf. Similar in most ways to their source boats, the Surf Class models are different in that they're equipped with either the unique Cobalt Surf System or, in the case of the CS23 Surf, Cobalt's legacy TruWave technology. The R-Series incorporates a revolutionary hull design, our programmable Volvo Penta surf management software and our new hydraulic SurfGate™ technology, the Cobalt Surf System delivers both the stand-out Cobalt ride and ideally shaped waves for a perfect surfboard and wake-board experience.

With its safer, forward-facing propeller layout and power-trim control, the Cobalt Surf System allows you to continually configure and tune the boat's attitude and speed to create a continuous, world-class wave. Easy to set up and use, the CSS provides smooth transitions, a wide push zone and a solid wake pop on either side of the boat.

Sports Authority

R4 in Pacific Blue/Rich Ebony Exterior with Frost/Slate Interior

Sports Channel

Here's how the Cobalt Surf System works:

1. Fill the ballast tanks
2. Set the GPS-directed cruise control to the desired speed of travel
3. Select Surf Left or Surf Right for wake location
4. Throttle up and start

In SURF Performance mode, the surf tabs automatically deploy and adjust, getting the boat on plane and up to speed at any ballast level. The system's power trim capability ensures that the wave and the soft, dry stand-out Cobalt ride are maintained with no loss of control. The driver can set the system for surfing, wakeboarding or smooth cruising, all with the confidence that Cobalt's Volvo Penta drive is maintaining full control by pulling the boat through the water, rather than pushing it from behind.

Outboard Experience

Cobalt's Outboard Class comprises of six models, including the 23SC, 25SC, 30SC and three R Series models, the R4 OB, R6 OB and R8 OB. Similar in most ways to their source boats, the OB models are different in that they're equipped with outboard-designed hulls and a choice of single or twin (R8OB & 30SC) Yamaha or Mercury outboard engines, offering unmatched power in either salt or fresh water. All are built with our characteristic attention to detail, and all are equipped with popular features such as our patented easy-entry swim step.

With acoustic baffling for a quiet ride, our Outboard Class is specifically engineered to deliver the smooth, stand-out Cobalt ride, while providing the efficiency, ease of maintenance and lower cost of ownership that come standard with outboard propulsion.
